GET READY for a legendary dining experience.

The most anticipated new dining venues in West Michigan are now open. Picturesquely situated on the grounds of a country club, the two restaurants at Macatawa Legends offer a serene setting, spectacular sunset views, superlative service and a brilliant bill of fare that will impress even the most discerning foodies. And best of all, you don't have to be a member to enjoy the affordably priced menus.

Walls of windows providing exquisite panoramic views of the Raymond Hearn-designed championship golf course surround both restaurants. Yet each restaurant has its own separate identity and character. On the main level, just past the sweeping floor-to-ceiling, double-sided fieldstone fireplace (come winter, one can just imagine the roar of a crackling fire while the snow swirls outside), you will find the family-friendly Sunset Lounge & Restaurant. Catering to the casual diner from lunch through dinner daily, it is the perfect spot to meet for lunch, dinner or nibbles and drinks with friends and family (there's even a kids menu complete with coloring book).

and rich dark wood, Sunset overlooks the rolling hills of the course and sparkling crystal waters of the small lake embraced by holes 9 and 18. The well-stocked bar offers Happy Hour specials, and you can catch the latest sports action from one of the flat-screen TVs in the lounge area. dining. On Sundays, Legends offers a superlative brunch from 10:30 a.m.-2 p.m. that includes house roasted carved prime rib, a variety of seafood, an assortment of breakfast and lunch selections, made-to-order omelets, fruit and pastries, soups, salad and house-made desserts.

Executive Chef Ben McCoy, a nine-year culinary veteran with some of the area's most notable kitchens on his resumé, has designed contemporary, cutting-edge menus for each of the restaurants that focus on fresh, seasonal ingredients sourced locally. Passionate about his cuisine, Chef McCoy prowls farmers markets in search of the ultimate quality ingredients. His seasonally driven, competitively priced menu may include fresh morels, ramps, fiddlehead ferns and other foraged Michigan items in springtime, with heirloom tomatoes, a bounty of berries and root vegetables at harvest. Menu items might include starters of lobster bruschetta, mushroom crostini or roasted red pepper crab bisque, with entrées like herb-crusted lamb loin, filet mignon with house-made mushroom bordelaise, or pan-roasted adobo-spiced pork tenderloin, along with a daily fresh catch, imaginative treatments and chef-crafted sauces.
