FRIENDS, FUN, AND FONDUE:

The Melting Pot of Grand Rapids is the perfect place to “Dip Into Something Different®.” As the nation’s premiere fondue restaurant, The Melting Pot has been serving delicious fondue and creating lasting memories throughout the United States since 1975. The Grand Rapids Melting Pot opened its doors in 2005 and is locally owned and operated by Mark and Lisa Shaw.

Fondue originated in Switzerland and caught on like wildfire in The States during the '70s. Derived from the French word fondre, meaning “to melt,” the modern diner will enjoy a fabulous meal at a leisurely pace that is sure to melt away the stresses of today’s busy world. The Melting Pot has perfected the fondue experience by making the choices and flow of the meal fun and easy. The Big Night Out, a four-course fondue experience, showcases all of the delicious courses offered in four easy steps.

The Melting Pot uses only the finest, freshest ingredients to create the perfect dining experience. Prepare your lobster in any one of our four cooking styles and compliment it with our delicious Garlic-Dijon melted butter sauce.

The first course is a creamy cheese fondue; choose from six cheese fondues made with only the finest cheeses and ingredients, served with an assortment of breads, fresh vegetables, and Granny-Smith apples for dipping. After enjoying a fresh, crisp salad with one of The Melting Pot’s signature homemade dressings, the entrée is served.

The Big Night Out offers three entrée platters depending on the preference of the guest. Entrées include a premium assortment of filet mignon, succulent coldwater lobster tail, tender shrimp, delicious marinated meats, fine pastas, an array of sauces for dipping, and unlimited fresh vegetables. The experience of preparing the entrée is almost as enjoyable as consuming it, with various cooking styles and the unique, interactive dining experience.

So what’s next? The grand finale at The Melting Pot is a decadent chocolate fondue. Indulgent creations by our chef start with milk, dark, or white chocolate. One local favorite is the “Flaming Turtle”: milk chocolate swirled with rich caramel and pecans, and flambéed tableside. This dessert is sure to ignite your dining experience. All chocolate fondues are accompanied by cheesecake, brownies, pound cake, Rice Krispie treats, specialty marshmallows, strawberries, and bananas for dipping.

Whether it is a romantic dinner for two or a great feast with friends, The Melting Pot offers a comfortable, sophisticated atmosphere for those who wish to relax, reconnect, and rejuvenate their spirits. Call today to make your reservation and “Dip Into Something Different®.”
