THIS IS AN invitation...

Panera Bread invites you in to smell freshly baked artisan breads, indulge your appetite, and make yourself comfortable. It's an invitation to come enjoy handcrafted loaves of bread, made with care from fresh dough and pulled straight from the oven this morning; to try inventive hot and cold sandwiches or hearty soups that warm you from the inside out — any time of day — to savor hand-tossed salads with preservative-and-antibiotic-free, all-natural chicken; to feel good about kids' meals created with select organic and all-natural ingredients and a menu that offers 0 grams of trans fat ...

But it's not just an invitation to eat. It extends beyond the fresh and flavorful food. You are invited to come in and unwind — at a spacious booth with a group of friends, in a big leather armchair by a toasty fireplace, or at a table where you can work with soft lighting and free Wi-Fi. This is an invitation to linger as long as you like — with your coworkers for lunch, your family for dinner, or all by yourself any time of the day. Grand Rapids' seven Panera Bread locations of-
