UCCELLO'S RISTORANTE is well known to enthusiasts of all types. First, there are those who enjoy the taste of pasta imported directly from Italy and served with homemade sauces whose recipes date back for generations. Second, there are the sports fans, who revel in cheering for their teams on the HD big screens while eating some of the city's finest pizza and appetizers.

Grand Rapids Magazine readers have often recognized Uccello's for having the Best Happy Hour and Best Sports Bar, and one of the top three Best Pizzas in town. All of its pizzas are handmade, from the thick crusts to toppings both traditional and unique, like Riviera Salad: Mixed greens topped with strawberries, mandarin oranges, cashews, tomatoes and julienne strips of swiss cheese served with Poppyseed dressing.

Uccello's Signature Pizza.

Uccello's also offers American cuisine, and its baby back ribs, steaks, seafood, burgers and sandwiches are not to be overlooked. All menu items are made from scratch by a talented culinary crew with eyes — and taste buds — for detail.

Hands-on activities like NTN Trivia, Texas Hold 'Em, Keno and free wireless Internet keep diners busy in the sports lounge, while at the same time, quiet family dinners are being enjoyed in another section of the restaurant. Uccello's patios are a famous gathering spot for after-work and weekend socializing, and their banquet rooms are perfect for rehearsal dinners, parties, and business meetings.

At Uccello's, there is something for everyone to enjoy. After just one visit, you're sure to become a member of its fan club.

Grilled Salmon with Artichoke Compote: Grilled salmon filet served atop a light mix of sauteed kalamata olives, tomatoes and artichokes served with grilled asparagus.
